

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Application of Gary Wayne
Shurtliff for a Household Goods Carrier Permit.

Application 02-05-034

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
REQUESTING ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

This case has been assigned to me from Administrative Law Judge Tim Sullivan.

A review of the case file has left me uncertain whether this Application is still being pursued by Mr. Shurtliff. A note in the file suggests that he informally communicated to the Consumer Protection and Safety Division with an intention to withdraw the Application, but there is no confirmation of that intention from him in the file.

IT IS RULED that in order to bring this matter to an appropriate conclusion, I direct the Applicant to notify me in writing whether he wishes to continue to seek a household goods carrier permit or, alternatively, to withdraw his Application. No formal response to this ruling is required. A letter to my attention will be sufficient. If I have not heard from Mr. Shurtliff by May 1, 2003, I will assume that he wants to withdraw the Application.

Dated April 16, 2003, at San Francisco, California.
